

Estuarine and Coastal Science Association Logo Competition

Rules

1. The competition is organised by the Estuarine and Coastal Science Association (ECSA: <https://ecsa.international/>). Entrants are invited to submit one design for a new logo*.
2. You must be a member of ECSA to enter the competition.
3. Entries should be submitted to Jonathan Dale at jonathan.dale@coventry.ac.uk.
4. Up to six logos from those submitted will be selected by an ECSA judging panel to form a shortlist, which will be printed in the ECSA Bulletin and published on the ECSA website and social media channels.
5. The winner will be selected from the shortlisted images by a vote amongst the ECSA Council members and announced at the ECSA Focus Meeting in March 2020, in the ECSA Bulletin, on the ECSA website and social media channels. The judges' decision is final. The winner will receive a certificate and a prize of £150, second place will receive a certificate and a prize of £75 and third place will receive a certificate and a prize of £50. The prize is non-transferable, non-refundable and non-changeable.
6. No fees will be payable for any promotional or publicity uses. ECSA will retain copyright and all rights to use the design and new logo for publicity, publications and other purposes.
7. ECSA reserves the right to not use any of the submitted designs as a new logo. Following a review of the winning design the council will decide whether to use all, or part, of the winning design.
8. By entering entrants will be deemed to have agreed to be bound by the above rules. ECSA reserves the right to exclude any entry from the competition at any time.

* The judging panel welcome entirely new designs or those representing modernisation of the existing logo.
